THE SPEAKING.

A Big Crowd in Town and Badges Numerous.

Two thousand or twenty-five hundred people were in town Monday, drawn here by county court and the announcement that Col. Breckinridge was to speak. Many came in on the early trains and in vehicles from adjoining counties, but the greater portion of the multitude was from the country precincts of this county. Judging from the badges worn, the supporters of Mr. Owens were in the majority, but the crowd was good natured and we noticed very little drinking. When the 9:50 a. m. train came in from Lexington, bringing Col. Breckinridge, one who did not know what was going on might have thought there was a circus being unloaded or a strange animal on exhibition from the actions of the crowd gathered there, curious to see the man who has been talked and written about so much during the last six months.

At 2 o'clock the court house bell rang, when the crowd, which had been standing so thick upon the streets that pedestrians could scarcely get along, began to surge in that direction. When they reached there the announcement was made that the speaking would take place in the State House yard and there was a great rush in that direction. The yard immediately in front of the State House was soon full, and at 2:10 the speaker took his position in front of the fountain and began his address, which was about two hours long. His voice did not reach the outskirts of the crowd and the latter soon began to melt away until at the close hardly one half of them remained. Some hot words were passed between some of the adherents of Mr. Owens and the Breckinridge men during the speaking, but no trouble followed and the crowd dispersed quietly and returned to their homes.

A Chance for a Prize.

In another column Messrs. Miles & Son offer several premiums for cakes made from their celebrated J. E. M. flour, and every lady who is proud of her skill in the culinary art should enter the contest. All of the prizes offered are worth trying for.

Killed By a Street Car.

Eugene Chambers, son of Mr. W. W. Chambers, of Lexington, was run over and killed by a street car in that city Saturday. The deceased was a grandson of Mr. John Dennis, of this county, and a nephew of Mrs. L. H. Fennell, of this city.

The little fellow was only eleven years old and was returning from a church picnic when he fell between the motor car and trailer, the latter, which was heavily loaded, passing over his body and inflicting internal injuries from which he died at 6:30 that evening. The remains were brought here for interment and the funeral took place Monday afternoon.

At His Old Business.

Mr. John T. Gray, formerly of this city, is now manager of the Villa Ridge Hotel at Pewee Valley, which is being run as a summer resort, being open from June 1st to November 1st. Mr. Gray has thus gone back to his old occupation, as he was for a number of years one of the proprietors of the Capital Hotel, in this city, and understands the business thoroughly. He should make the Villa Ridge a success, as it is well located to catch summer boarders who wish to get away from Louisville during the warm weather.

Graduated With Honor.

Two Frankfort young ladies graduated from Sayre Female Institute at Lexington on Tuesday, viz: Miss Alice Pilkington, daughter of Mr. Ad. Pilkington, the South Side lumber merchant, and Miss Virginia Lyle Cooper, daughter of Rev. W. B. Cooper. Miss Pilkington was one of the two who carried off the first honor of the class. Rev. W. B. Cooper delivered the address to the class.

FRIDAY, JUNE 8, 9 A. M.
Concluding business session.

The Wednesday morning part of the exercises was carried out as stated, but the afternoon arrangement was changed. The Association together with a number of invited guests left at two o'clock for an excursion by boat to High Bridge and the exercises of that part of the programme were carried out on board the boat.

The excursion party returned in time to allow the members of the press to attend the receptions at Judge Holt's and at the Governor's mansion, and almost all of them took advantage of the opportunity.

At the business session Thursday morning Col. I. B. Nail, of the Farmer's Home Journal, was elected President; Capt. John A. Bell, of the Georgetown Times, vice-president, and Mr. Loving Gaines, of the Elkton Progress, Secretary and Treasurer. Pat. McDonald, Western Argus; J. W. Nreeland, Farmer's Home, and S. T. Breeding, Bowling Green Times, were appointed delegates to the National Editorial Association, which meets at Asbury Park, New Jersey, next year.

Mrs. Emma Walker Herr, of Lexington, carried off the honors of the meeting with her paper on "The End of the Century Woman." It was splendidly written and beautifully read.

In the afternoon the electric cars, were placed at the disposal of the members of the Association and they were taken over the line through South Frankfort and down to the O. F. C. and Carlisle distilleries, where the members of the press were handsomely entertained by Mr. George H. Watson, assisted by Messrs. Ben. Blanton and Will Jenkins. Everything drinkable flowed freely and was sampled numerously. Some of the party were taken on board two of the cars and carried over to Thorn Hill Park that they might see how easily so heavy a grade can be climbed by an electric motor.

At night the banquet and ball took place, both of which were largely attended. The young people kept up the fun in the ball-room until three o'clock yesterday morning, but the banquet was dissolved about 1. The following was the

Gen. W. J. Hendrick presided as toastmaster and the following were the TOASTS.

SAM. J. ROBERTS, Lexington Leader: A Republican Editor in Kentucky.

"To assail a worthy man was Shame, and stranger is a holy mine."

H. A. SOMMERS, Elizabethtown News: The Responsibilities of the Press.

"To beg for favor—shrink with fear— Now God forbid it! He saw his duty plain and clear, And nobly did it."

MISS ELVIRA SYDNOR MILLER, Louisville Times: The Woman Reporter.

CHAS. M. MEACHAM, Hopkinsville Kentuckian: The Essential Elements of Journalistic Ethics.

"It to do were as easy as to know what 'twere good to do, chaps had been princes and poor men's cottages burned's palaces."

COL. E. POLK JOHNSON, Louisville: The Old Time Journalists.

"Old wine—old friends, And there the session ends."

MAJOR H. T. STANTON: The Local Press.

"A prophet is not without honor save in his own country."

Gov. Knott was down for a toast, but was too ill to attend, and Lieutenant Governor Alford made a few remarks in his place. As Mrs. Herr outshone the boys in the business meeting, so Miss Miller laid them in the shade by her bright and witty little speech, but the remarks of all were greatly enjoyed and heartily applauded.

Respectfully submitted,

D. B. WALLACE, B. D. Ringo, Committee.

After the festivities of Thursday night the members of the Association felt little like business yesterday morning, so the session set for 9 o'clock was dispensed with.

The Committee on Resolutions prepared the following resolutions, which were incorporated in the proceedings of Wednesday:

WHEREAS, One of the most successful meetings of the Representatives of the Press of Kentucky has for a time been regaled with the choicest offerings of the justly celebrated blue-grass, we would here express in some measure the appreciation which we feel; therefore,

1. Resolved, That to those who did most to bring us to this splendid city, to the railroads of Kentucky, which have been in position to add most materially to the successful conduct of this and all former meetings of this body and which have at all times been ready to stand with the Press of the State for the highest development of Kentucky's resources, material and mental, this body extends the thanks due them for the courtesies so generally received from them, and we assure them of our appreciation of the spirit of this uniform good treatment.

2. To the citizens of Frankfort generally, and to the Committees of Arrangement and of Entertainment, in particular we offer our sincerest thanks for their hours of universal pleasure since we have been within their gates. The best this delightful city had to offer has been ours, and with such a generous hospitality has it been bestowed that we have felt the loss like strangers here than like wandering brothers safe returned. 3. Resolved, That we shall carry to our homes the kindest memories of Frankfort's hospitality, and to the commendable pride which her people's feel in the beauty and attractions of Kentucky's Capital we add the assurance of our hearty participation. We join in them in the hope that a short time hence shall see erected here such State buildings as may meet the approval of those among whose lovely hills they are to stand, and shall be a pride to every citizen of the State.

4. Resolved, To the Capital City Railway Company the thanks of this body are due for a most delightful ride about the city. We appreciate their hospitality as we commend their enterprise.

5. Resolved, That to the retiring President, Secretary and other officers of this Association the thanks of the members are due for the uniformly efficient and valuable service which they have rendered to this body and the unflinching courtesy which they have extended to the individuals comprising it.

Matrimonial.

ALEXANDER-HUGHES—The wedding of Miss Nettie Allen, daughter of Mr. W. J. Hughes, the well-known lumber dealer of this city, and Mr. Harvey Wood Alexander, of Fayette county, was solemnized at the residence of the bride's father on Murray street, Wednesday morning at nine o'clock, the ceremony being performed by Rev. W. C. Taylor, of the Baptist Church. It was a very pretty, but quiet, affair, only the relatives and intimate friends of the contracting parties being present. The attendants were Miss Louise McK. Hughes, sister of the bride, and Mr. Eugene Wood.

The many friends of the bride in this city extend to the happy pair their best wishes for long and felicitous married life. They left on the 10:20 train the same morning for a trip to New York and the East, and were accompanied as far as Lexington by a number of relatives and friends.

They will reside on the farm of the groom in Fayette county.

BUTTIMER - O'CONNELL—Mr. James Buttmer, formerly of this city, but now of New Castle, and Miss Katie O'Connell, were married at the Catholic Church in Eminence on Wednesday.

CARROLL-HOLT—The event of the season which has been looked forward to for several weeks by the society people, not only of this city, but of Louisville and all the Blue Grass towns as well, was the marriage of Miss Sarah Frances, daughter of ex-Chief Justice W. H. Holt and Hon. Anthony Joseph Carroll, of Louisville, Speaker of the House of Representatives. The ceremony was performed at the First Presbyterian Church on Wednesday evening, in the presence of an audience embracing some of the most prominent people, socially and politically, in the State.

The ushers, Messrs. R. P. Pepper, jr., T. Noble Lindsey and Henry Ware, of this city, and Hon. W. W. Stephenson, of Harrodsburg, preceded the bridal party into the church. Next came the groomsmen, Messrs. John Barret and W. J. Abraham, of Louisville, John H. Welch, of Nicholasville, and E. C. Bain bridge, of Owenton, and the bridesmaids, Misses Julia Prewitt, of Winchester, Tillie Ferguson, of Paris, and Laura Pepper and Christine Reynolds, of this city, behind them the groom and his best man, Hon. George H. Alexander, of Louisville. The bride came last, leaning on the arm of her father, preceded by her sister, Miss Carrie Holt, as Maid of Honor. At the altar, the bride and groom advanced and were met by Dr. Blayney, who performed the service in a most impressive manner.

The dresses of the ladies were most beautiful and tasteful, and the whole party both ladies and gentlemen, one of the handsomest and most distinguished looking ever assembled in a church which is famous for the brilliant nuptials that have been celebrated in its precincts. After the ceremony was concluded the party and a large number of invited guests repaired to the residence of Judge and Mrs. Holt in South Frankfort, where a reception was given to Mr. and Mrs. Carroll until the arrival of the 8:55 train, on which they proceeded to Lexington, spending the night there and proceeding Thursday morning to the seashore, where they will remain a short time. On their return to Kentucky they will make their home at Pewee Valley for the summer.

GAINES-WITHROW—Mr. Howard Gaines and Miss Alice Withrow, youngest daughter of Mr. James M. Withrow, were quietly married Tuesday afternoon at the residence of the bride's father, on Campbell street, Rev. R. L. McCready officiating.

SARGENT-GRAVES—Mr. Claude Sargent and Miss Samuella Graves were married at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. Pink Crockett, near Bridgeport.

SHEETS - SUTTLES—Mr. Joseph H. Sheets, a young farmer of this county, and Miss Olla B. Suttles, also of this county, who has been teaching in the District Schools for several years, were married on Wednesday evening, the 6th inst., in the parlors of the Palace Hotel, at Lexington, Rev. J. H. Burdin, of the Forks of Elkhorn, performing the ceremony. The young couple left the next day for a bridal trip to Louisville and other points in the State. They will reside in this county.

Crossing the Atlantic

Usually involves sea sickness. When the waves play pitch and toss with you, strong indeed must be the stomach that can stand it without revolting. Tourists, commercial travelers, ranchmen, mariners, all testify that Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is the best remedy for the nausea experienced in rough weather on the water. Nervous and weakly travelers by land often suffer from something akin to this, and find in the Bitters its surest remedy. No disorder of the stomach, liver or bowels is so obstinate that it will not yield to this powerful, yet gentle, and thorough remedy. Equally efficacious is it for chills and fever, kidney and rheumatic troubles and nervousness. Entrants to the frontier should provide themselves with this fine medicinal safeguard against the effects of vicissitudes of climate, hardship, exposure and fatigue.

The First Lady Trustee.

Mrs. Susan Quire was on Saturday elected a school trustee in the Walcutt District and on Wednesday qualified as such. Mrs. Quire has the honor of being the first lady trustee ever elected in the county.

Bought a Home.

Judge Caswell Bennett has purchased from Mrs. W. B. Rodman her residence on west Main street and will shortly take possession of it.

"Many of the citizens of Rainsville, Indiana, are never without a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the house." Says Jacob Brown, the leading merchant of the place. This remedy has proven of so much value for colds, croup and whooping cough in children that few mothers who know its worth are willing to be without it. For sale by PHIL CARPENTER, South Side Druggist.

Announcement.

We are glad to announce to the citizens of Frankfort, and the public generally, that we have perfected our arrangements for opening a Commercial College in the city of Frankfort, Ky., on Monday, June 18, 1894. The branches taught in the college will be book-keeping, which will include business arithmetic, quick and accurate calculations, business grammar, correspondence, business forms, etc. Shorthand and typewriting, penmanship, &c. Base Ball.

FRANKFORT, 12; GEORGETOWN, 1.

The game between the Georgetown College team and the locals at Thorn Hill Park on Saturday of last week was something of a farce, the only noteworthy feature being the heavy batting of the Frankforts, in which Lew. Brown led with a double and two triples. Hall, a new man from Cincinnati, was given a trial at third and behind the bat and showed up very well barring two wild throws. He is very handy with the stick. The attendance was the largest of the season.

NOTES.

The "O. I. C.'s" of Louisville, will play here next Tuesday.

No game has yet been arranged for to-day week, but the announcement will be made in due time.

The Shelbyvilles will be at the park again this afternoon. The game will be called at 3:30 and a fine contest is promised. Lew. Brown will be behind the bat and Maloney will do the twirling.

The game between the Georgetown Public School and the Frankfort Public School, which took place before the regular game at Thorn Hill last Saturday, was won by the latter, the score being 8 to 7.

There was a large crowd at the park Tuesday, in spite of the threatening weather, to witness the game between Shelbyville and the locals, but just before time to call the game it began to rain steadily and after waiting over half an hour, it was decided to call the contest off. It was a great disappointment to all parties, as both clubs were confident of victory, and the audience was anticipating fine sport. Rain tickets were issued by the management, good at any game during the season.

100,000 People Die

Annually in this country of consumption. Think of it! One adult out of every six, and yet in the early stages all pulmonary complaints may be readily controlled by Dr. Hale's Household Cough Cure. It is a certain remedy for coughs and colds which if left to themselves bring on pulmonary consumption. Pleasant to take. Children like it. The price is right, only 25 and 50 cents a bottle at P. H. CARANTER'S drug store.

Two Lives Saved.

Mrs. Phoebe Thomas, of Junction City, Ill., was told by her doctors she had consumption and that there was no hope for her, but two bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery completely cured her and she says saved her life. Mr. Thos. Eggers, 139 Florida St., San Francisco, suffered from a dreadful cold, approaching consumption, tried without result everything else, then bought one bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery and in two weeks was cured. He is naturally thankful. It is such results of which these are samples that prove the wonderful efficacy of this medicine in coughs and colds. Free trial bottles at CARPENTER'S drug store. Regular size 50c. and $1.

Deaths.

ARMSTRONG—Mr. Manual Armstrong, an old resident of this county, died on Friday of last week at his home near Bridgeport, aged 70 years. The deceased was an uncle of Sheriff R. D. Armstrong. The funeral took place Saturday afternoon, and the remains were interred in the family burying ground.

DEHONEY—Mrs. Laura Wingate Dehoney, wife of W. S. Dehoney, Esq., died Thursday night about 12 o'clock, after an illness of one week's duration, aged 57 years. The deceased had been in delicate health for a long time, but was not confined to bed until Thursday of last week, when she was taken suddenly ill. From the first there was no hope except that entertained by the loving hearts hovering about her bedside—praying that she might be spared to them for years to come. She was an affectionate wife, kind and indulgent mother, and had been for many years a member of the Baptist Church, and to her death had no terrors. As her life had been quiet and peaceful, so was her death—as gentle as the sleep of an infant. She leaves three children—Mr. Richard Dehoney, of St. Louis, Dr. Howard Dehoney, of Philadelphia, and Miss Janie Dehoney, of this city—with a devoted husband to mourn her loss, to whom the hearts of a large circle of relatives and friends go out in tenderest sympathy.

The funeral will take place this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, from the residence of her husband, 444 Main street. The services will be conducted by Rev. W. C. Taylor, of the Baptist Church.

GILTNER—A telegram was received by relatives in this city yesterday morning announcing the death of Mrs. Lizzie Giltner, wife of Rev. W. S. Giltner, for many years president of Eminence College. The sad event occurred at the home of her husband in Eminence Thursday night and the funeral will take place this morning at 11 o'clock.

MAYHALL—Judge John Mayhall, brother of the late T. J. Mayhall, of this city, died at his home at New Maysville, Indiana, on May 28th, aged 84 years. The deceased was born and raised in this county, and was the last but one of a family of twelve children—Mrs. Jas. R. Watson, of Louisville, being the only survivor. He was a kind hearted and worthy man.

WAGGONER—Mrs. Mary A. Waggoner, formerly of this city, died at the residence of her son, on June 3d, of congestive chills, after an illness of two days, aged 72 years and 8 months. She was a native of Ohio but has resided for 17 years in Kentucky. She was a consistent member of the Baptist Church since her 17th year, and was a widow for thirty years. She leaves four children, Mrs. Harriet Trickey, of Jennings, Michigan; E. B. Waggoner, of Indianapolis, Indiana; Mrs. J. R. V. Culter, of Louisville, Kentucky; and A. H. Waggoner, of this city. Her funeral took place from the Baptist Church, June 5th, at 4 o'clock, and she was laid to rest by the loving hands of son and daughter and many friends, in Frankfort's beautiful cemetery.

Sometime ago I was troubled with an attack of rheumatism. I used Chamberlain's Pain Balm and was completely cured. I have since advised many of my friends and customers to try the remedy and all speak highly of it. SIMON GOLDBAUM, San Luis Rey, Cal. For sale by PHIL CARPENTER, South Side Druggist.

FRANKFORT.

Franklin county was formed in 1794, and was the 18th county created in Kentucky. Frankfort, the county seat, has been the Capital of Kentucky since December 5th, 1792. By acts of the Legislature of 1794 and 1795, about $5,000 were appropriated and expended by the State in constructing the first Capitol building, the remainder being paid by Samuel Holmes and others under contract. When the seat of government was first removed to Frankfort the legislature occupied the old Love House, that stood on the corner of Wagon and Wilkinson streets. This house was also known as the headquarters of Aaron Burr, where the conspiracy was planned by Burr and his associates. The third State House was in fact the first permanent house erected for the purpose, and was occupied Nov. 3, 1794. This was destroyed by fire in 1813. The next or fourth Capitol was rented and occupied until the fifth or fifth (permanent) Capitol building was constructed, which was completed in 1814-15, at a cost of $40,000, of which $20,000 were subscribed by individuals and the remainder by the State. This was destroyed by fire, November 4, 1824. The sixth was temporary, the Senate occupying a seminary building on one square, while the House occupied a church on the west side. This church was burned on December 12, 1825, while the House was in session. The seventh State House, the third built for the purpose was first occupied by the legislature in 1829, and is the same in which the session are now held. To construct this building the State appropriated $85,000. The grounds upon which the buildings were donated by citizens of Frankfort. The east wing of the present structure cost about $150,000 and was commenced in 1873. The State of Kentucky during the existence of a century has expended the sum of $257,000 for public buildings to house its records and public officers. The city of Frankfort has always been the political center of the state. Public officers, after their terms expired, become citizens, identifying themselves with the Capital City.

MANUFACTURES.

Chief among the products of Frankfort may be stated whisky, flour, twine, chairs, dummies, carriages and lumber, the most notable of all fishing reels, the "Milam." Here is located the "Hermilage," the "Carliale," and "O. F. C.," the "Spring Hill," the "Oscar Buh," while the "Old Crow," "Old Pepper," are citizens and residents of Frankfort. Nearly a dozen saw mills are in operation within the limits of the city, the capital invested in this business being in excess of $150,000. A twine mill is operated by water power at Look No. 4, its paid up capital being $100,000. The Southern Chair factory and the Capital Chair Manufacture are both in operation here with a capital of about $100,000. The Kentucky Buggy Company is in successful operation and has a first class buggy, carriage and harness establishment, having survived its infancy and become noted for its workmanship. The capital invested in this business is about $30,000. The Milam reel is made here, and is known all over the globe as the leader of all fishing reels. A large flouring mill is operated by Jno. E. Miles & Son, with extensive elevators connected therewith. Here is made the well known brand "J. E. M.," the best flour manufactured. The Frankfort Brick Company manufactures first class pressed brick near the city.

BANKS.

Four banks of excellent financial condition do business in this city. The Farmers Bank of Kentucky, whose President is Col. Thomas Rodman and the Cashier Mr. Grant Green; has a capital of $1,000,000, and stands at the head of the financial institutions. Next comes the Branch Bank of Kentucky, with Gen. D. W. Lindsey, President, and E. L. Samuel, Cashier. The capital is $200,000, the mother bank being at Louisville. The next comes the State National Bank, capitalized at $150,000, having accumulated a large surplus, standing as one of the well managed institutions. The officers are Gen. Fayette Hewitt, President, C. E. Hoge, Cashier. Last but not least comes the Deposit Bank, officered by Capt. Milam, President, and H. H. Watson, Cashier. Its capital and surplus exceeds $100,000, and is one of the safest and best banks in Frankfort. The Frankfort Safety Vault and Trust Company is another institution that is a necessity to any county in settling estates, or becoming executor, trustee or assignee of any person, firm or corporation. There are several building and loan associations, one of them guaranteeing to pay out every five years, having already retired one class of borrowers in that period, releasing this class of mortgages. This is known as the Peoples' Building and Loan Association. There is another known as the Kentucky Investment Company, which is well managed and successfully operated, and is not restricted to the county, but does business in all parts of the State.

SCHOOLS.

The educational facilities of Frankfort are second to no other city. Here a first class public school exists, and the taxpayers bear the burden of its annual expenditure. The interest on one hundred thousand dollars in bonds is paid to this institution annually, amounting to $5,000. Then a direct tax for school purposes is levied, which, with the interest from bonds and the State per capita, produces nearly $20,000 annually, every dollar of which is expended in educating the white and colored children of the city. In addition, the Catholics have schools for boys and girls, in charge of the sisters of charity, and there are other private schools in successful operation. Near the city is the State Normal School for colored persons in charge of the State.

RAILROADS.

Within the present year an electric street car line has been constructed, which is about five and a half miles long. The company is the owner of three passenger cars of the latest style and finish, furnishing cheap transportation to the traveling public. In addition they have a car expressly built for transporting by electric power loaded freight cars from and to the manufacturing establishments in and near the city to the railroad depots centering Frankfort. It is like a baggage car and propels a loaded freight car around short sharp curves with ease and safety. The officers of the railway are Mr. Pat McDonald, President, and Mr. Jno. T. Buckley, Secretary and Treasurer. The L. & N. system enters Frankfort, and the Kentucky Midland Railroad, the latter being a Frankfort enterprise.

WHITE SULPHUR WELL.

There is in the city one of the finest bath houses in the country. The water is white sulphur, and is supplied from a bored well on the place of Mr. James A. Murray, half a mile distant from the city, and is carried to the bath house by its own power as it comes from the well.

HOTELS.

The city is well supplied with hotels, the Capital being the leading in its capacity as well as its large and airy rooms and hallways, its commodious dining rooms and its extensive office. There is also in the hotel the largest and best ball room in Kentucky, used exclusively for dancing purposes. The proprietor is Mr. James Weitzel, and the business manager is Mr. Ed. Weitzel. The Kenyon Hotel, under the management of Mr. T. E. Boone, is a well known establishment to the traveling public, well located, fronting on Main street and extending back to the river. It is a delightful place for the travelers to lodge and well cared for.

The Meriwether Hotel, so named after its old owner, is managed by Capt. S. V. Pence, the well known steamboat Captain. There everything is like home, and the visitors are always well pleased with accommodations at the Meriwether.

I have two little grandchildren who a few teething this hot weather and are troubled with bowel complaint. I give them Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and it acts like a charm. I earnestly recommend it for myself taken with a severe attack of bloody flux, with cramps and pains in my stomach, one-third of a bottle of this remedy cured me. It took twenty-four hours I was out of bed and doing my house work. Mrs. W. L. DUNAGAN, Bonanza Hickman Co., Tenn. For sale by PHIL CARPENTER, South Side Drugist.

OLD MAIDS.

BY DIAMOND P. BENTLEY.

The rich maids are rocked upon roses through life,
And the poor maids go through the crying strife,
Old maids will not marry, to wash a plate,
Wrinkled-faced maids often meet poisonous fate.

Look at the proud-kissed-maid to-day,
They let their kin people do their courting every way.
Marrying is a leap in the dark you know,
And you might not get a knotty-headed Jim-crow.

The gentle river's hooting owl by moonlight
Must steal back the old maid's heart by sun-light,
And her vanished sweetheart of love
Might stop her crying voice that rolls above.

Peep through the twilight love with a sweet kiss,
My hand and heart with you shall never be un-kissed.
May the sleeping red rose in her velvet bosom
Find some one to love in her dreams.

The moonlight crusty-silver waves have danced by
When I stayed in the kitchen to cook the golden pie.
No snow-capped white rose can charm my sad heart,
The son of the night birds around my face must part.

Sad musical sounds make me shed tears,
To look at my wrinkled face once planned in my years.
May whispering pines kiss the falling dew,
When death's restless courtship bids us adieu.

Where the orange blossoms fan the rose hue,
My sweet pink face and kisses are for you.
To-night, down hangs the red rose moon;
Is there one sweet kiss for me this afternoon?

The flowers are sweet to drip with diamond dew,
And love is sweet to court when time and new.
The flower is beautiful to blush with sunlight beam,
And love is the sweetest to smile with gleams.

Beauty is the fairest when young in years,
And love is the sweetest to have no fears.
The flower is sweet to float into the wedding room,
And kisses are the sweetest to wed with a groom.

$100 Reward, $1000.

The readers of the ROUNDABOUT will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

Strong Witnesses.

Among the thousands of testimonials of cures by Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure, is that of Nathan Allison, a well-known citizen of Glen Rock, Pa., who for years had shortness of breath, sleeplessness, pain in left side, shoulders, smothering spells, etc., one bottle of Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure and one box of Nerve and Liver Pills, cured him. Peter Jaquet, Salem, N. J., is another witness, who twenty years suffered with Heart Disease, was pronounced incurable by physicians, death staring him in the face, could not lie down for fear of smothering to death. Immediately after using the New Cure he felt better, and could lie down and sleep all night, and is now a well man. The New Cure is sold, also a free book, by J. W. Gayle.

On to Washington.

Three years ago, the only authentic map of the Virginia battlefields was prepared in the War Department for the Chesapeake & Ohio Railway Co. It can with safety be asserted that it is the most interesting map published; and so great was the demand for the first edition that 100,000 were soon absorbed, but it has been re-issued for the occasion of the K. of P. Encampment at Washington in August, and will be mailed free after June 1st, upon application to C. B. Ryan, Assistant General Passenger Agent, C. & O. Ry., Cincinnati, O. In connection with the map is also a description of the grand and varied scenery of the Virginias, and the delightful Mountain and Sea Shore Resorts along the C. & O., as well as a sketch of the battlefields.
